

$200 Eye Art Contest Entry Due Date Postponed

6/17/2011

We have gotten such a wonderful response in the form of some great and unique entries that we are postponing the deadline for the contest from July 5th to September 5th. Please send in your "eye art" and who knows, you might win $200.00 in in-store credit AND the knowledge that your art will be professionally framed and hung up in our office.
